ing his vacation. Mr Jacobsen has acquired the principalship of the Dakota City schools for the ensuing year and will, after a visit here and at Wausa, take up his work at that place.

Sioux City Journal, 6th: George W Sloan and Miss Jessie Coulson, both of Sioux City, were married Thursday night at the home of Henry Dierking, two miles west of Dakota City. They returned to Sioux City that night and will be at home to their friends at 261 Myrtle street, where Mr Sloan is engaged in the dairy business.
Miss Coulson is the daughter of Mr and Mrs John Coulson. Mrs Margaret Butterfield, a resident of Woodbury county since 1876, died at the home of her son, Herbert Butterfield, one and a half miles east of Monroside, yesterday of stomach trouble.
She was 77 years old. Mrs Butterfield moved from Sioux City to the farm of her son three years ago, upon the death of her husband. She was the widow of J G Butterfield, the first master mechanic on the Chicago, St Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha railvices will be held at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from Westcott's

Sioux City Journal, 6th: Horace Jordan and Albert Williams, members of a fishing party, were thrown into the Missouri river a short distance below South Sioux City yesterday when their fishing craft upset. They were rescued from drowning by other members of the party. Jordan and Williams in a light skiff were preceding the other members down the river when the mishap occurred. The skiff struck a log about seventy-five feet from shore and tilted. In an effort to right the position of the craft, one of the men moved too near the edge and the boat tipped over. Companions hurried forward in a larger boat and threw out a rope which Jordan grasped and was drawn into the skiff. Williams was sinking for the last time and was out of reach of the rope when another member of the party kicked off his shoes, threw off his clothes and jumped overboard to save him. Williams was pulled to the side of the boat and drawn in. He was resuscitated in a few minutes by his companions. Jordan and Williams live in Council Bluffs. They were returning from a month's trip up the Missouri river on a fishing and camping expedition.

Sioux City Journal, 6th: Pleasure seekers spending one of the last Sundays of the season at Crystal lake failed to find the usual scenes which the "wise ones" whispered existed at the resort, judging from the spoils seized by Sheriff Mahon, of Dakota county, and a squad of officers who raided eight houses at the beach at 2 o'clock Sunday morning. More than 100 cases of beer and quantities of wine and whiskey were confiscated by the sheriff's men. It was after midnight and the noise of merrymakers at the resort had subsided when Sheriff Mahon, Constable C E Do-little, of Dakota City, and Constable John Hazelgrove, of South Sioux City, and other officers stole through the grove back of the houses and entered the places one by one. Search warrants were flashed on the unsuspecting proprietors, and libations were seized by the bottle, by the case and by the keg. Several automobiles loaded with liquor stood along the beach at 3 o'clock Sunday morning when the last search was completed. The sheriff's party drove silently back to Dakota City. Warrants were issued yesterday from the county attorney's office at Dakota City for the arrest of eight of the proprietors on charges of selling intoxicating liquor illegally. Those whose arrest was ordered are Joseph Saunders, Nick Nelson, "I Don't Know Club," Alfred Savidge, Joseph Hiehe, Frank Robinson and the conductors of the "Red and Reel" club.

Emerson Enterprise: Jno Provancha, of Hubbard, attended the funeral of Mrs McDonald Monday. Delbert Berry and family spent Sunday and Monday at the parental home near Dakota City. Mrs Thora Francisco and Miss Elsie Francisco, of Hubbard, visited relatives here Sunday and Monday. C L McEntaffer returned to Emerson yesterday morning, having proved up on his claim in Logan county. Last Thursday Fredwin N Harris and Miss Viola Haessing were united in marriage in Sioux City and returned home the same day to receive congratulations from their many friends. The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr and Mrs Louis O Has-sing and is well and favorably known among a large circle of young friends, while the groom is the son of Mr and Mrs Joseph Harris, pioneers of this section of Nebraska. The young couple will make their home in Emerson and have a large circle of friends who wish them many years of married life. C J Dahms and Richard Lieber each shipped a car of hogs to Sioux City from Nacora the first of the week and consigned them to Steele, Siman & Co. The hogs of Mr Dahms had been double vaccinated and the commission firm sold them to the Tri-State Serum company at twenty cents above the top for that day and the price paid was $9.05. Mr Dahms and Mr Lieber are two of the successful hog raisers of this section of Nebraska.
Mr Dahms is a firm believer in double vaccination treatment and the price he received for them fully justifies him in adhering to that method.

Sioux City Journal, 7th: F M Book-hart, 1112 Fifth street, reported to the police yesterday that someone had removed a chest of tools from the new Martin building under construction at Fifth and Pierce streets. The chest was stolen Saturday night. Bertha Whirling Thunder, whose marriage to George Red Hawk was to add the capstone to the celebration of Winnebago Indians in powwow at Crystal lake yesterday, was "left waiting at the church." Her lover is in jail. The dripping figure of an Indian maiden arose Aphrodite-like out of the waters of Crystal lake at daybreak yesterday.
As she rippled her way to shore a soft Indian lullaby broke upon the morning air. Before the sun was up Miss Whirling Thunder was dancing in the sand of Sylvan beach in joyous exuberance and many heads. Her wedding song awakened other members of the tepee village which fringed the beach. In a moment the village was aflutter with preparations. Miss Whirling Thunder went to wait before the tent of Chief Whooping Whirl, emcesary of the Omahas, who was to officiate at the ceremony. Red Hawk did not appear. The hours clicked off while the Indian bride stood in the ring formed by a group of attendants and wept at the absence of her lover.
At noon a searching party was organized. For hours the party hunted in the woods and buildings about Sylvan beach for the missing candidate. The search was futile. Toward noon an idea occurred to Frank O Lake, one of the managers of the Indian convale.
Mr Lake had read in The Journal that a number of Winnebago braves had been arrested during a war dance in Sioux City late Saturday night. He called up Sioux City police headquarters by telephone and confirmed his suspicions. George Red Hawk, the missing bridegroom was in jail. He

HARTRANFT-WAIT

Mrs. Agnes Hartranft

Weldon D. Wait

The above were principals in a pretty home wedding at 11 o'clock on Wednesday morning at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs.
James Forester. The marriage ceremony was pronounced by Rev. J. Crew, pastor of the M. E. church, and only the near relatives and a few intimate friends were present. A wedding dinner was served immediately after the ceremony, and the bridal couple took the Burlington passenger for Seward, Neb., the home of the groom. The bride is well known in Dakota county, where she was born and grew to womanhood. For the past three years she has been Postmaster John H. Ream's efficient assistant in the postoffice. Mr.
Wait, although a stranger to many of us, is an energetic young man of pleasing appearance. For several years he has been foreman of the painting department for the Burlington railroad, but is now foreman in a shop in his home town. The best wishes for a long and happy married life follow them to their future home.

was too drunk to leave for the ceremony. The news was communicated to Miss Whirling Thunder. She stamped her foot angrily. She vowed the marriage would not come off and threw her wedding finery into a corner of the tepee. Toward afternoon, however, she became mollified. Promise of a fine kitchen range upon the completion of the ceremony helped her to forget her humiliation. Word came that Red Hawk would be at the tepee village Sunday morning. Red Hawk was penitent. Finally Miss Whirling Thunder said she would forgive and forget. The lovers were reconciled.
This afternoon a belated wedding will be celebrated at Sylvan beach. Two hundred warriors and their squaws and several chiefs have been persuaded to remain for the ceremony. Hundreds of Sioux City people saw the Mascoas and Medicine lodge braves conclude their medicine dance yesterday afternoon. The dance was begun Friday. Pony races and other tribal dances were given during the afternoon. The powwow will end today.
Upwards of 500 Indians will break camp and return to their reservations.

CATTLE TO HOLD BOARDS

Interstate Livestock Fair at Sioux City Will Draw Leading Breeders of America.

Growing interest in the cattle feeding business and development of the movement to breed better cattle has caused the Interstate Livestock Fair Association to increase awards in the cattle division, with a result that leading breeders of America will be represented at the fair with choice herds, beginning September 21 and continuing until September 26.

Because of its interest in the development of cattle feeding the Sioux City Livestock Exchange has made a special effort to get sheep exhibitors in carload lots which will place in the judging. The winners will divide a prize totaling $1,000. The sale of cattle shown in this division has always proved one of the most attractive features for breeders in past years.

The fair this year will also make a special effort to get sheep exhibitors.
The remarkable development of the sheep industry in the Sioux City territory has just caused the announcement that the Sioux City Stock Yards company will recognize the industry by erecting a big sheep barn at the yards. In the stock competition judging will be made from the standpoint of the packer, and all sheep entered will be sold on open market September 26, no commission being charged the owner. The buyers have pledged an advance of $1 over the market on all sheep taking fair prizes.

Entries made in the various classes of cattle are more numerous than for any previous affair. This condition has been brought about through universal recognition of the fact that ribbons won in Sioux City are taken with close competition than exists at any of the big stock shows in the western country. The existence of a big market has the tendency to concentrate fine cattle raising in and around Sioux City and the far distant territory is represented by exhibits shipped from the state fairs in Iowa, Minnesota and South Dakota.

Reward of Merit.
The following is taken from "Greetings From the Mothers' Jewels Home," York, Neb:

At the W H S Executive meeting held at Lincoln during Assembly, the following plans were adopted by way of compliment to one of our well beloved sisters who has given long and conspicuous service to the society.

Mrs Crews presented us with a beautiful Paisley shawl which had been given her to place where she thought best. She asked us to dispose of it in some way for the benefit of Mothers' Jewels Home. It was decided to make it not only bring us money, but also confer a merited honor, and still further serve us by carrying afar a message of affection. A shawl fund of $50 was started, the money to be used to name a chapel window in Spurlock Hall for Mrs John Crews, for fifteen years Mission Supply Secretary of the North Nebraska Conference, and the shawl to be sent to our dear Mrs M E Roberts, who is spending her sunset years in California. We cannot quote accurately the words of Mrs Mary Fisk Parke when presenting Mrs Roberts with a beautiful Alaska fur rug, but she said something like this:

"We want you to know that when you sit by the fireside with your pretty little feet on this rug and pray for us, you are as truly helping us as when you were making the long, hard journeys across the state to organize socities." To this we add, "And when you draw this shawl across your precious shoulders that have been so strong to bear our burdens, we hope you will feel that you are enfolded in the love of the Nebraska women, and we pray that we may learn what you have learned so well, how to abide under the shadow of the Almighty."

About $30 have been pledged to this fund, much of it paid and all to be gathered as quickly as possible in the hands of Mrs Dobson. It would be gratifying if every Nebraska auxiliary organized by Mrs Roberts would send something to swell this fund, and if all who have been associated with Mrs Crews in her faithful ministrations would contribute as they desire, the window would probably have to be enlarged. Write a little note to these long time friends, Mrs Crews, Dakota City, Neb. The address of Mrs Roberts is 105 Minnesota Ave, San Jose, Cal.

no corresponding cut in the quality—that is still perfect in every particular. The juicy tenderness of our beef and mutton is proverbial. Our steaks, chops, and cutlets have won for us a reputation. Whether for roasting or boiling our joints are satisfactory in quality and price.
